COMEDY OF ERRORS.

The week has closed upon perhaps the most extraordinary combination of errors it was ever our lot to publish. Everything went so wrong in the Government House, Bank, and Telegraph office, that Dr. Pacheco may exclaim with Shakespeare:

> Be it my wrong, you are from me exempt.
> But wrong not that wrong with a more contempt.

The telegram to Dr. Pellegrini in Paris went wrong. The note to the National Bank about the emission went wrong. The Bolsa speculators went wrong. The National Bank went wrong. President Roca went wrong. Dr. Pacheco went wrong. In Paris they went wrong. In Iquique they went wrong. In London they of course were all wrong, and we close a wrong week, based on a wrong note, wrong telegram, wrong address, wrong clerk, wrong messenger, and wrong board of directors.

To explain to our readers such a maze of errors, such a string of blunders, such a category of wrongs is by no means an easy task. President Roca's telegram to Dr. Pellegrini went wrong through the stupidity of the Government House messenger, who finding the Havas office closed, took the message to the Galveston line at the Post Office, where it was at once received and despatched but stopped at Iquique, no one on the West coast knowing who the d——l Mr. Pellegrini was or is. Yet on this erring, blundering telegram millions of National gold Dollars have been bought and sold, and when the wisest, ablest, and shrewdest men in the market were speculating on the issue, the black porter of the Government House held the secret, and could have turned the whole Bolsa inside out by a mere grin. The nature of this erring telegram, which hitherto was embedded in ciphers and kept as a state secret, is now known to us all. President Roca presuming that the London Bankers had asked Pellegrini to make them some new proposals, told Don Carlos the modifications essential in order to pass Congress; he explained to Dr. Pellegrini in cipher that these alterations in nothing diminished their gains and profits in the business, and he assured him that if these modifications were made, both Government and Congress would at once pass the law.

Fate did her worst, however, with the telegram. It never reached Pellegrini, whose patience becoming exhausted, at last sent a telegram from Paris asking the Minister why on earth he had not answered him, and telling him that early next week he embarked for the Plate. When this message reached the Government House the murder was out. Not since Adam's fall was there ever such a Government House row, and yet this is but half the story. During the week Dr. Pacheco finding the Committee of Congress pressing him about the "curso forzoso" decree, drafted a note to the President of the National Bank asking him if his bank needed a further emission By a most incomprehensible blunder the copying clerk in the Government House addressed the note to the President of the Provincial Bank where, when it was received, it was at once passed to a special Committee. The President of the Bank, Mr. Hueyo, took the train at once to La Plata. Dr. Enciso, Provincial Minister of Hacienda, at once took the train to Buenos Aires, meeting followed meeting, interview on top of interview. Late on Tuesday evening gold tumbled in the liquidation room on the news that the Bank would reply to the Government that it needed no further emission. Splendid leading articles appeared in all the city papers on the note, the Bank and the reply to the Commission; but the whole thing was a mistake. The Minister never for one moment condescended to ask the Provincial Bank if it wanted any more emission. When Dr. Pacheco saw by the papers that the note for Sastre had gone to Hueyo, he sent for the President of the Provincial Bank, who at once went to the Ministerio and found the Minister out, but then Mr. Hansen was there. Hansen did his best to explain the blunder. Hueyo didn't see it. Hansen suggested that the note be returned. Hueyo said as it was gone to Committee it was now impossible without a note from the Minister. The Minister refused to write any note to correct the error of his clerk, and so the matter stood in all the rain and storm on Saturday evening. The Bank Committee has drawn up its reply to a note that was never intended for them. The President of the Provincial Bank holds the answer of the Committee, but cannot possibly send it to the Minister knowing that the whole thing is a blunder. Meanwhile, he can't send it back to the Committee without a note from the Minister withdrawing it. President Sastre, on the other hand, is waiting for the note that has never reached him, which by mistake of the clerk in the Government House was sent to the Provincial instead of the National Bank, and thus all the players in this extraordinary scene stand.

"What error drives our eyes and ears amiss?"

MINISTER ACHAVAL'S REPORT.

In Minister Achaval's report, a copy of which we have just received, we find detailed accounts of the public buildings of La Plata, which, while affording sufficient interest to our readers, prove that the young city is progressing and developing rapidly:

Government House—The plans for the construction of the Government House were drawn up by the Special Committee appointed by decree of May 1881; but as these plans were thrown out a decree was issued in May 1882, entrusting the task to the Architectural division of the Engineer's Department. The foundation stone was laid on Nov. 27th, 1882, and the building was erected under the careful management of Don Jose Porret, and subsequently of Don Santiago Bertelli. During the erection of this magnificent building, the Committee expressed the desire to change the front of the edifice, which was effected under the superintendence of Architect Dormal. Very little remains to be done to complete the building. The outlay entailed up to Dec. 31st, 1884 amounted to $260,000 m/n.

Ministry of Government and Minister's residence—By decree of May 7th, 1881, the erection of this building was entrusted to the Engineesr' Department. The foundation stone was laid on Jan. 22nd, 1883. The building is almost completed to-day and much is due to the zeal of the contractor Don Jose Porret. The Minister's residence is a spacious house, furnishing all the conveniences necessary for the comfort of a family, and will shortly be finished.

The outlay entailed by these two buildings up to December 31st, 1884, amounted to $250,000 m/n.

Ministry of Finance and Minister's residence—The plans of these buildings were drawn-up by the Manager of the Works, in virtue of the decree of May 7th, 1881, and carried out under the same conditions as the two preceding buildings. The foundation stone was laid on Jan. 22nd, 1883, Don Pedro Cabrera being the contractor. The buildings in question are now almost completed.

The outlay up to December 31st, 1884 amounted to $280,000 m/n.

Legislature.—The plans for these buildings were drawn up by the winners of a competition organized for the purpose, Messrs. Gustave Heine and George Kagerman of Hannover. The works are being rapidly carried out under the superintendence of architect Charles Nordmand. The foundation stone was laid on May 29th, 1883. The outlay up to Dec, 31st, 1884 amounted to about $210,000 m/n.

Town-Hall.—The plans for this building were drawn up by Mr Hubert Stiers of Hannover, the architect contracted, in Europe, being Mr Ernest Meyer, who has introduced some modifications during the course of the erection of the edifice. The foundation stone was laid in June 1883, the contracted 'empresario' being Sr. Bertelli. The Municipal corporation began their session in this now almost completed building in August 1884. Outlay, $190,000 m/n.

Engineers' Department.—By decree of May 7th, 1881, the plans for the construction of this building were entrusted to the Architectural division of the Engineers' Department. The foundation stone was laid in May, 1883, the contractors being Messrs Beaumarié Bros. The work is now awating completion. The outlay up to Dec. 31st, 1884, amounted to $180,000 m/n.

Police Barracks and Prison.—The plans for this building were drawn up by the Manager of the Works, in virtue of the decree of May 7th, 1881. The building was divided into three parts; one for the police administration; one for the prison, and the third for the Fire Brigade. The works are being actively carried out, having been begun on March 15th, 1883, under the superintendence of the 'empresario' Don José Rodrigo. The outlay up to December 31st, 1884, amounted to $255,000 m/n.

Park-Entrance—As the 'Buenos Aires Park' had no entrance worthy the name, Government decreed one suited to the importance of this place of public resort. It was decided to erect an arch similar to that at the entrance of the Grand Opera at Paris. Outlay, $14,000 m/n.

Legislature (pro. tem.)—This building which has been erected for the Engineers' Department has been arranged, in virtue of the decree of Jan. 31st, 1884, for the temporary service of the legislature. The outlay entailed for this purpose amounted to 10,000 m/n.

San Ponciano Chapel—The plans for this chapel were drawn up in virtue of the decree of April 12, 1883. The foundation stone was laid on June 12 1883. The works were begun under the superentendence of the 'empresario' Don Clemente Olivera.

This chapel is now completed and the outlay entailed in its construction up to December 31, 1884 amounted to $70,000 m/n.

Court House—The plans for the construction or this edifice were drawn up by Architect Bultner. The foundation stone was laid on November 2, 1883, the contractors being Messrs Fiorini and Ferranti. Subsequently, by virtue of a Government decree, a prison was added to this building and is now almost completed, having been commenced on January 12, 1884. The outlay up to December 31, 1884 (for the two buildings) amounted to $225,000 m/n.

Chalet—The temporary residence of H. E. the Governor of the Province was ordered from the United States, everything being entrusted to the care and experience of Messrs Rivolta, Cortoni, and Company. When the house was erected, it was found that it was not sufficiently large, in consequence of which several improvements and additions were made. Total outlay, $45,000 m/n.

Estancia—The building known as the Estancia was erected on the property of Mr. Iraola. At first it was utilized with the tracing etc of the city. Subsequently it was decided to improve and enlarge it, for the purpose of making it a residence for H. E. the Governor of the Province. The building was almost in ruins and had to be almost completely rebuilt. Outlay up to December 31, 1884, $17,000 m/n.

Melchor Romero Hospital— In October, 1833, it was decided to entrust the manager of the Works with the drawing up of the plans for this hospital. The plans were approved in November, 1883, and in December of the same year the foundation stone was laid, the contractor being Don José M. Morales.

The hospital was inaugurated by Dr. Dardo Rocha, who was then Governor, in the presence of a few invited gentlemen.

Since the inauguration of the building which was blessed by Canon Benjamin Carranza, the wards of the hospital have been crowded with the sick sent in from the various camp districts. The Hospital has gardens and avenues. The outlay up to December 31, 1884 amounted to $72,000 m/n.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

July 19th.

The National fete, in point of weather, had everything in its favor; in this respect the Republic is Royalist, as it, too, has its "Queen's days." There was a falling off in point of enthusiasm, but this is not meant to imply the absence of animation, but, as compared with former years, both traits were relatively less. However, citizens of late had a surfeit of good things, and, as Goethe says, "to pleasures oft repeated we become indifferent." There was the national apotheosis of Hugo, and the Fete des Fleurs was also not to be despised. It is evident that the National holiday is more and more becoming the property of the people, the working classes, the real backbone of the nation. It is in the "amiable faubourgs," as Louis Philippe called them, that it is necessary to search for the expression of true sympathy with the Republic, in the way of flag decorations, festoons of flowers and tricolor favors, paper lanterns ond triumphal arches.

Forgetful of the wise maxim, "that when you have not what you love, it is necessary to love what you have," the adversaries of the Republic made known their spite and spleen, by displaying no bunting, no paper lanterns, closing their shutters, tying tricolored ribbons and tiny lanterns to the tails of their dogs, and reading their party journals with mourning borders. Many of the middle classes, through indifference rather than hostility, displayed neither flags nor lanterns, but set off a day in the country, like John Gilpin's wife, "though on pleasure bent, they had a frugal mind." Then the local subscriptions to organize free dances at the crossings and open street spaces, fell short this year. But business is terribly bad and taxes frightfully high.

If there be any lassitude respecting the fetes, it must not be set down as due to the displeasure at the Republic and a yearning for the fire-pretenders, with power to add to their number who make fierce love to the throne of France, for which there exists neither popular respect nor popular sympathy.

France has ever loved the "militaires;" hence why the school battalions, ten thousand strong, were applauded. A spectator would be churlish, indeed, and difficult to please, who refused approbation to the tiny soldiers—aged eleven and fourteen—as they defiled past, in battalions 450 strong, gun upon shoulder, but no bayonets, preceded by drummers, trumpeters and fifers. The little officers, the adjutants especially, discharged their roles as if the eyes, not of their mammas and sisters were upon them, but of Europe itself. Serious people only smile at this hobby of the Municipal Council. Happy youth is ever an agreeable sight, and the tiny volunteers, in their homely blue uniforms and sailors' caps, made a most favourable impresssion, as they stepped forward to the merry air of Beranger's "Lisette." Primo Minister Brisson, before whom they defiled, invited the ten standard bearers to breakfast with him, and they went home with pockets full of "bonbons."

Till two years ago the Army of Paris was reviewed on the 14th of July, in the Bois de Boulogne. It was positive cruelty to animals, to soldiers as well as spectators, to drill them six hours under a burning sun. To obviate this a review, or morning parade, is held in the Champs Elysées and the Avenue de Vincennes. The ceremony possesses now very little attraction, and opinion demands the return to a field-day on the race-course of the Bois de Boulogne. In the review this year the public applauded, not the fire-brigade: that ought to be sufficient to disgust military mashers with the service—only they must serve.

Statues to Voltaire and Béranger were inaugurated during the rejoicings. The former is now accepted as the high priest of secular Republicanism, the destroying angel of prejudices and abuses, and the apostle of toleration and liberty. The most curious matter about this statue is, that since 1878 no Government would sanction its erection! What progress in seven years. The name of Voltaire, like Ziska's skin, is still a spectre. The Municipal Council demands that the National Library hand over Voltaire's preserved heart, to be preserved in the Pantheon. The cross has been taken down from the cupola of the latter, and a tricolour floats in its place. In point of taste it is hideous; as a matter of tact, the demolition is maladroit.

The statue of Beranger is in the Square du Temple, the square where he passed the greater part of his life. He was, in his day, tailor, waiter, printer, bank clerk and employé in a pawn-office, till he found his true vocation—ballad-writer. The inauguration ceremony consisted chiefly of recitations of his songs. The President of the Municipal Council only forgave the poet's Bonapartism, in consideration of his hatred for Orleanism.

The chief places of amusement were all thronged, because the admission was gratis—the free list being entirely suspended for that day and evening only. The poor received a good square meal and a few coppers; the beggars proper were let loose for twenty-four hours; they, according to many foreigners, add to the picturesqueness of the capital. In the prisons, all the inmates had extra rations and wine, and were free to pass the entire day in the exercising yards, or in their cells reading a special issue of books. The lunatics in the various public asylums were also liberally treated; besides a good bill of fare, they were supplied with red, white, and blue cotton to make tricolors, and decorate their wards and the sheds. The most miserable during the festival must have been the five men lying under sentence of death. Their cells are cheek by jowl with the cemetery of Père Lachaise; they could hear the mighty hum of the rejoicings. Marchandon, one of the five cried more strongly than ever; he has such a craven fear of the guillotine that he is not expected to live out the time required by M. Grevy to sign his execution or pardon.

The open air balls were mostly improvised; all that was required was leg-room. The next curiosity was the wonder where all the fiddlers came from. Some of the orchestras, at sunrise pointed their bows to the god of day, and implored the crowd to finish. The fireworks were very profuse and brilliant. The chief attraction was at the Lake in the Bois de Vincennes—the working classes' Wood. But it has the draw-back of being out of the way. Quieter folks were contented with the fairy display at the Trocadero, and its "vis-a-vis," the Champs de Mars where there were showers of golden rain, Chinese stars, Bengal fires, and an Aladdin-like galaxy of coloured flames winding up with a bigger blaze dedicated to Hugo. In Paris the church of St. Agustin was the most splendid of the splendidly lit public buildings, while the Place de la Concorde was a maze of festoons of white globes of gas. There were only two political demonstrations, one was in the Rue Charlot, where there were festoons of paper-colored boats en route for Tonkin; the other was the procession of the Alsatians to deposit their annual mourning wreaths before the statue of Strasbourg, as no Prussian flag was displayed on the line of march, there was no occasion to tear it down, burn it, and throw the ashes into the Seine. The members of the Gymnastic Society were in white flannel costume with black scarfs; the procession opened with a beautiful little girl aged five, toillette in red, white, and blue, draped in crape. The only serious accidents were from squibs; one patriot filled his pockets with these to give to children they caught fire; the unfortunate was included in the explosion when the crowd demanded an encore.

CENTRAL ARGENTINE LAND Co.

GENERAL MANAGER'S REPORT.

Rosario de Santa Fe,
March 30th, 1885.

George Woolcott, Esq.,
Secretary, Central Argentine Land Company, London.

Dear Sir,

I have pleasure in forwarding my Report for the year ending December 31st, 1884.

LAND SALES.

These were less than in the previous year, and were as follows:—

	Acres.	Amount. £	s.	d.
In the Province of Santa Fé...	6,722	10,043	19	6
In the Province of Cordoba....	14,583	7,278	1	9
Together....	21,305	£17,322	1	3
And averaged about 29s 10d per acre in Santa Fé, and 9s 11d in Cordova
The sales cancelled were in respect of	8,416	3,907	2	5
Net sales	12,889	£12,414	18	10

The total area sold or under sale contract was 278,042 acres, representing in the aggregate £205,519 6s. 1d., and averaging about 14s. 9d. per acre, which price is a fraction higher than that of the previous year. The sales cancelled have been augmented by the cancellation of a portion of two sales of land effected in the previous year at Tortugas.

The area of land undisposed of in the Province of Santa Fé has been reduced to about 42,355 acres, irrespective of the four square leagues specified in Art. 12 of the Concession of 1863.

LAND LEASES.

	Acres.	Amount. £	s.	d.
Leases have been cancelled during the past year representing..........	13,981	827	9	9
And new leases have been granted for..	4,237	336	2	6
Reducing the Rent Roll by..........	9,744	£491	7	3

The total area of land leased was 34,197 acres.

REVENUE ACCOUNT. (ROSARIO OFFICE.)

The receipts and expenses have both exceeded those of the previous year, and the results are shown as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
RECEIPTS—
Rent and interest	3,242	13	1
Sales of wood, etc	2,564	13	8
Sundries	157	5	10
Together......	£5,964	12	7
EXPENSES—
Administration (Rosario)	£1,866	17	8
Salaries and expenses of Colony overseers	847	16	7
Expenses of cutting wood, salary of overseer, etc.	1,284	4	0
Insurance and Repairs of Buildings....	56	1	7
Exchange, loss on remittances	441	2	9
	4,496	2	7
Leaving........	£1,468	10	0

The interest written off amounted to £1,243 5s. 5d., and although there were some bad and doubtful accounts still outstanding, I do not think the amount will be so large again.

COLONISTS' ACCOUNT.

Balances outstanding—	£
Land	32,932
Rent	4,149
Interest	6,731
Advances	199
Total........	£44,011
As against in 1883—	£
Land	24,802
Rent	4,601
Interest	7,348
Advances	620
Total........	£37,371

This is, I consider, much better than that of last year.

The amounts actually received from colonists in the past year were slightly better than those of the previous year, except for rents, which were considerably less.

The items were as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
Land	18,410	10	2
Rent	1,649	2	9
Interest	2,064	6	6
Advances	233	15	9
	22,357	15	2
And for town sales	1,568	9	0
Total......	£23,926	4	2

The payments in respect of interest also show an increase over those of former years. It will be seen that the amount received for rent somewhat exceeded the sum which accrued during the year, whilst the interest was in excess of the net amount brought into revenue.

CAPITAL EXPENDITURE.

This has been about the same as last year. The overseer's house at Armstrong has been finished at a total cost of £549 18s. 3d.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Owing to abnormally low prices for wheat in Europe, the abundant harvest here has not benefitted our colonists to the extent that might otherwise have been expected.

I am glad to say, that notwithstanding the existing forced currency, there has lately been an increased demand for the Company's lands between Tortugas and Belle Ville. But I do not see much prospect of disposing of the greater part of the Company's lands in the Province of Cordoba on favourable terms, unless some sytem of irrigation be carried into effect.

I remain, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
(Signed) H. P. Boardman,
General Manager.

THE SCAB LAW.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Sir,

The report of the meeting convened by Mr. N. Lowe, at the rooms of the Rural Society, and published in the STANDARD of the 22nd inst. does not do full justice to either Mr Lowe or to the importance of the meeting. It is well known that our esteemed countryman Mr Lowe, of tired waiting for the commission of the R. S. to do something in regard to having a law past to help the sheepfarmers of this province to get rid of a disease, which not alone causes heavy losses in sheep and wool but entails a big item of expense to estancieros, who to avoid complete ruin in their flocks, received permission to hold a meeting and present a petition to Government, petitioning the speedy sanction of a law to oblige the extincion of scab in sheep.

Mr. Lowe with his untiring energy, not alone published notices soliciting the attendance of interested persons in his project but waited on them personally; and finally had the satisfaction of seeing a very respectable meeting assembled, both as regards numbers and influential persons.

I believe it is difficult to assemble at the R. S. a large number of members, as I see that the C. D. have had to postpone their annual meeting for want of a quorum.

Mr. Lowe being informed that Don Jose Romero was amongst the gentlemen who attended his meeting, at once decided to ask that gentleman to preside, which he accepted to do, explaining that for want of time he does not attend the meetings of the R. S. but from the great interest he has in the subject to be discussed, he had determined to attend Mr. Lowe's meeting that night.

In conclusion I may add that the R S had already taken the matter into consideration, but were unable to take further steps, as they were awaiting a copy of the law to the same effect existing in Australia.

"ESCRIBANOS PUBLICOS."

The Minister of "Culto" has just issued a decree methodizing the "escribanos" of the Capital; and henceforward these officers will be known by their number, and not their name—a distinction which we do not well understand.

In scanning the list, our readers cannot fail to observe that Mr. Cabral's "escribania" is over three hundred years old. How the world has changed since the doors of this "escribania" were first opened! Next in antiquity comes Mr. Paita; but we give our readers the list that they may judge for themselves. The list should be cut out and kept, since we all have, one way or another, to do with those "escribanos", and it may not be easy to remember who is No. 15 or who is 48. We cannot compliment Dr. Wilde on his imaginary "escribano" improvement. We believe it will be infinitely more difficult to know the offices by numbers than by surnames, and that there is a certain mediocrity in the method, which Dr. Wilde should have avoided. It is noticeable that since 1880 we have had no new "escribanias". So best. We believe that already they are too numerous.

Here's the list:—

PHI. BETA KAPPA CLUB.

We received from Boston the report of the last meeting of this Club, Dr. Everett read the following lines:

OUR RETURNED CONQUERORS.

High health, by gallant service earned,
To friends from o'er the pool;
Two exiles to their home returned,
Two truants to their school.

Two victors! By their sacred arts
Each wins a glittering prize;
Triumphant one o'er Eastern hearts,
And one o'er Southern skies.

In South and East they felt the bars
That hamper duty's martyrs;
One wrestling with the Southern stars,
One with the English garters!

The astronomic sage we fête,
The gastronomic sinner;
One pampa'd with the River Plate,
One with the Island dinner.

One trained the Argentines to heed
What their own heavens could shew 'em.
One taught the Britons how to read
An average English poem.

In Cordova Gould watched the sword
Belted to bright Orion;
In London, Lowell threw a cord
Over the British lion.

Gould may disclose a comet's way
By closest calculations;
But Lowell's words as bright display
The comity of nations.

Gould's needle told how low the dip
Can sink, by mathematics;
But Lowell's more magnetic lip
Could compass dip-lo-matics.

Two mighty books the German sage
In reverence bids us scan—
Above, the stars' resplendent page—
Within, the soul of man.

Contemptuous Virgil flung to Greece
The starry heaven's control,
While vowing Romans ne'er should cease
To sway the nations' soul

But when our exiles back we claim,
With either laurel crowned,
And learn how Harvard's ancient fame
Still spreads o'er wider ground—

Be stars no more by Herschel ruled,
Nor diplomates to Stowell,
Since foreign skies have bowed to Gould,
And foreign lands to Lowell!

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Buffon, Captain Lyons, sailed yesterday with a fair number of passengers.

The financiers felt quite flushed at the first news yesterday morning viz, that there is a shot in the Pellegrini locker yet. It appears that a telegram sent to the Commissioner by President Roca got tired when half way through the cable, and did not reach its destination till the day before yesterday. The report of the sapient Senate Committee recommending an increase of emission is simply outrageous. It is becoming too painfully plain that the Government has no intention of any effectual or genuine economy. Unless the Budget be cut down to 30 millions, everything else is moonshine. It is too bad that the hardworking people of the country are to be ruined and robbed to keep up an Electioneering Budget.

We have received a report of Mr. Connacher's lecture to the English Literary Society, but owing to press of matter both yesterday and to-day have been unable to publish it yet but will do so on Tuesday.

The English Literary Society has organized a grand Concert, both Instrumental and Vocal, to take place on the evening of Wednesday next. We have had a peep at the programme which includes a classical Trio for piano, violin and violincello; several glees for male voices; solos for violin, flute, violincello, and fine pianoforte solo and other attractions. The most distinguished amateurs in B. Ayres are taking part, and the whole has been organized by a prominent musical member of the committee. A veritable treat for the lovers of good music is in store. Ladies tickets to be had as usual.

The rain yesterday morning was of a very wetting kind, and made beautiful mud of the streets in no time. The Lord Mayor's confounded tinkering with the footpaths is the great nuisance of the day. His Lordship is always at something, and is perpetually ready for anything, from a Boulevard to a "basura" contract, and has wasted a lot of public money in odds and ends. What about the Wash-houses and lots of other things so much more urgently required than a Boulevard?

Olivier Pain has turned up in India as a Russian spy, so Rochefort and his friends will be spared the pain of "removing" H. R. H. the Prince of Wales when he next goes to Paris for a little relaxation.

Whoever owns Eucalyptus trees should hold on to them:

"The Western Druggist says there is a largely increased demand for the gum of the eucalyptus tree, on account of its effect in removing scales in steam boilers and in preventing rust and "pitting." Extensive eucalyptus forests are to be planted in California with the object of supplying the demand."

The Caridad Lottery of Montevideo has suffered much of late from the plethora of Lotteries on this side of Jordan, and has resolved to lower its rates and push our lotteries hard. For the future the Caridad will have two extra drawings every month: Big prize $4,000 pats, and ticket only one pat each, or 20 cents for a fifth. This will put the Caridad on its feet again.

The Austro-Hungarian Mutual Aid Society, which has its home over Mr. Sheiner's Tea and Coffee Depot at Moore's corner in Calle Reconquista, is one of the most flourishing societies of its kind in the country, although it makes no "bombo" about its work. Its capital is $7,500 Nats, and it counts 789 members. It has branches in La Plata, Patagones, Rosario and Baradero.

The prime warden of the Fishmongers' Company, London, told the Society of Arts, in a recent address, that the daily supply received at Billingsgate, the great London fish market, amounted to 500 tons. A ton of fish is equal to the weight of 28 average sheep, so that 500 tons equals a consumption of 14,000 sheep.

The weather was so dark yesterday morning that many most esteemed subscribers had to shave by candlelight, and we saw quite a lot of gashed chins. Talking of shaving, the Hairdressers of the city hold their annual fete to day, and their shops will be shot. They intend to go on horseback to Belgrano with their lady friends, in a long procession that will certainly be worth looking at by judges of equestrianism. We're awfully afraid, however, that Jupiter Pluvius will spoil the fun.

The "Rt. Honourable" is going to fling some more money to the dogs in the shape of a Plazoleta in front of San Roque Hospital. Now, what on earth is the necessity for this outlay?

The city "vasura" is rather nasty, but it is worth money. The highest bid for the residue of it this year is 1,150 Nats. monthly. It is very cheap at that, and the contractor will make lots of money.

If ever we get into the hands of the law, we'll try and yet "introduced" to Judge Torres and give Judge Aguirre a very wide berth. The former learned magistrate gave an Ausonian six months on Thursday for a trifling theft: and on the same day Dr. Aguirre, for the same offence, sentenced a poor devil to six years in the Penitentiary. The fact that the convict in this second case gave his victim a bang in the eye after clearing his pockets does not justify the great difference in the punishment.

The French are at their old wretched system — deceiving the public about the cholera in Marseilles, just as they did last year. We'll have it here in some of the steamers, as sure as a pocket-pistol, if our port people dont look uncommonly slippy. A few "casos sospechosos" would really be a blessing in disguise, as they would give the Lord Mayor something to occupy his mind instead of the Boulevard.

During an examination of a witness as to the locality of the stairs in his house, the counsel asked him—"Which way do the stairs run?" The witness, a noted wag, replied—"One way they run up stairs, and the other way they run down stairs." The learned counsel winked his eyes, and took a look at the ceiling.

One of the tit-bits of news going yesterday was the discovery by the police of a tremendous swindle by another 'long firm,' in which there are three partners, one of them a quondam banker in Europe where he burst up to the tune of £300,000 stg. The full particulars will be known to-morrow.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The echoes from La Plata yesterday reported a flare-up in the Chambers and a special Committee named to enquire into 'the goings on' of the La Plata Municipality, a body that seems periodically to misbehave itself. Mr. Albert Chappi has got a douceur of 1500 nats for some extra work done for Government. Lucky old Chappie! We'd work our nails off for half the money.

There is wonderful news for our camp friends. The days of the repulsive 'biscacha' are numbered. Mr. Daus, a Chilian tanner, has discovered a process that renders 'biscacha' skins far better than kid for making gloves; and he is now in this city with the view of opening a tannery here as soon as possible. Those with lots of 'biscachas' on their land will now make colossal fortunes, and have gloves for nothing.

President Roca did a graceful act the other day. H.E. sent the young widow of the lamented Dr Navarro Viola a cheque for the salary he would have earned up to the end of the year, had he lived.

The Republica had some strong remarks yesterday on a subject we have often alluded to, viz, the bad compliment the swells of society pay the ladies by dressing any and everyway, at all hours of the day and night. The La Plata Club have resolved that mashers, young and old, must wear full evening dress for the future at every concert, ball or reunion the Club gives at which ladies are present. Bravo! No more shooting jackets and double-soled boots after 6 p.m.

The new distillery and sheep-fattening company is to be called the Union Industrial. It is not stated whether the sheep are to be fattened on spirits or not; but we suppose so.

Yesterday was the 12th anniversary of the day on which Gatti tried to pot General Sarmiento in Calle Cuyo, when he was President. The blunderbuss burst in the ruffian's hands, or the General would have been a gone coon.

During the fall in the river on Wednesday and Thursday, 6000 tons of sand were taken from the beach by the cartmen, in 2000 trips, each cart making four trips a day, and sometime five. There were 1300 men and 2000 horses employed in the work, and the sight must have been a strange one for the numerous visitors now in town, which is crammed with all kinds of people.

Fathers of families, guardians, and employers of child labour should read the new rules just issued for the public schools. If they don't, they may get into trouble.

Here's a tip for subscribers who are shaky about the windpipe; and, we are sorry to say there are lots so:—"A gargle made of strong black tea, and used cold, night and morning, is now the fashionable preventive in London against falling a victim to sore throat during the cold winds of spring, and similar 'cold spells' at other times of the year.

Mendoza again! T.'s ambitious province is going to start a Bolsa in which bulls and bears can skin each other and the public the same as in Buenos Ayres. They'll soon get tired of it. The place is too small. Even busy Rosario cannot manage a Bolsa.

The unfortunate wight who does the kerosene lighting for the the city will be utterly ruined, horse and foot. He was fined 928 Nats. in June and 628 in July.

The Republica gives a laughable account of a row in a fashionable drawing room in Calle Artes between two "jovenes" who were courting the daughter of the house. The girl kept playing the two 'novios' off against each other, until finally they came to blows in the drawing-room. Then mamma and the girl screamed; the latter rushed out; papa rushed in; the combatants smashed everything in the room in their struggle, which would never have ended but for the butler who knocked both the belligerents down right off, and when they got on their legs again, kicked them into the street. This is just the kind of shuffle a very young girl likes to see about herself. It proves the sincerity of the fellows that are at her pretty feet.

The Italian editorial duellists who came down here from Rosario last week en route to Montevideo, to pretend to murder each other in a duel, but changed their mind and didn't, were welcomed with a "triste sonrisa" by the papers on their return to that town. This Sir-Lucius-O'Trigger termination of the affair is greatly to be applauded. There is nothing so lamentably unnecessary as a funeral after a duel now-a-days.

Our friend and colleague Dr. Cittadini has a little duel affair on with his distinguished colleague Signor Fabricatore (dangerous name for an editor!) Don't fight Cittadini! Good people, and especially good editors like yourself, are scarce.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming the distinguished Austrian Minister, Baron Salsberg, back from his trip up the river.

Very bad news for the ladies:—The German Government has discharged all women who were employed in its postal, telegraph and railway service as clerks and in other capacities. As during the last twenty years they have nearly monopolized such service in some towns, much suffering has ensued among the discharged. The motive alleged is that women is unfit for such public service.

How economical the Government Palace has become! The proposal for an "Arqueos" office to stop the outrageous frauds in the registration of ships, has been scouted with virtuous indignation, because it would entail a monthly outlay of 450 nats.

It appears that there is some hitch in the wooden pavement contract with the big Paris firm. An agent is expected out next week to set matters straight.

A quarrelsome hasty fellow, in supping with a friend who never contradicted him, not wishing to provoke his wrath, unable to endure this acquiescence, at last burst out—"Hang it, deny something, that I may know that there are two of us."

When a woman tries to catch a ball, she throws her arms wide apart, waits until the ball hits her on the nose, turns her hand with a windmill motion, runs after the ball, picks it up, brushes the hair out of her eyes, and smiles as though her way of doing it could not be improved upon.

An old maid at Nashville keeps a parrot which talks, and a monkey which chews tobacco. She says between the two she doesn't miss a husband very much.

"There are good and bad points about this coffee," said the boarder, in a judicial tone—"The good point is that there is no chicory in it; the bad, that there is no coffee in it."

LIBRE DE VENENO

Pídase y ensáyese; sus resultados serán sus mejores recomendaciones

Los pedidos para ensayos, serán atendidos inmediatamente gratis.

La glicerina siendo reconocida hoy por todos los prácticos como el mejor de los tópicos para la composicion de antisárnicos, algunos comerciantes víctimas de su buena fé, ofrecen á nuestros estancieros con el falso nombre de Específico de Gliserina, una mistura que, lo afirmamos sin temor de ser desmentidos, no es otra cosa que un menjunge de ácido carbólico impuro, y de materias inertes.
Los específicos con la base de glicerina, son como lo dicen los avisos y prospectos de esos señores comerciantes, los mejores curativos de la sarna, como gusanos, larvas, putricion de pesuña (foot-root), piojillo, etc., etc., en los animales de la especie ovina.
Por lo tanto, valiéndonos de las palabras de esos señores, podemos garantir que nuestro específico es el mejor, pues es un Sulfo-glicérico cuya base está garantida por 70 o/o de glicerina pesando 28 grados.
Para evitar todo error, al pedir nuestro específico, exijir que los envases lleven nuestra marca registrada.

Aug. 22nd, 1885
Gold..................... 43 o/o prem.
Cedulas F.............. 79¾
Treasury Bills.......... 102

The gold market this morning opened with a strong falling tendency. Prices fell rapidly from 44 to 42, but subsequently the speculation drove them upwards again, the closing price being 43 firm. During afterhours speculation grew stronger, and 200,000 were sold at 43 sellers. For Sept. some operations were effected at 42-41½, which best shows the present tendency of the market. It was currently stated that up to a late hour last night no news had been received from our wandering commissioner; and many yet place their hopes in the possibility that the Pellegrini loan will be yet launched.

The afterhours in Cedulas was not so brisk as could have been expected. About 40,000 Series G were sold at 88, and 50,000 Series F at 80. Nothing was done in National Bank Shares or Certificates.

Advices from Bahia Blanca are most unsatisfactory. It appears that the aposta has risen to an unprecedented height, flooding the whole town. The waters have stopped all traffic at the railway station and the 'quintas' in the vicinity are almost destroyed. The camps, however, are in the most flourishing condition and have abundance of grass.

The Buffon of the Lamport & Holt line, which sailed yesterday, took £72.294 sterling home. We learn that the Archinedes has bought £50,000 sterling for the Provincial Bank.

Mr William Robinson, Traffic Superintendent of the Central Argentine Railway, sailed yesterday in the the Buffon. In spite of the weather many friend assembled on the molehead to see him off. Mr Robinson leaves for Europe after 11 years uninterrupted laborers in this country. We wish him a pleasant trip and hope to see him back again soon.

Mr E A Griffin was welcomed to-day. He arrived from Guaviyu and reports camp and cattle in fair condition.

The Tamar is expected in Montevideo tomorrow. She is a day late having called at Santos. Having touched at Vigo 8 days quarantine will be imposed.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

For Aug. 31st 770,000 at 144-143.80-50-70 to 143.20-143-142.80-142-142.50-80-143

Sales, 1,262,000
Cedulas—
For cash F 42,000 at 80-79¾
Treasury Bills—
For cash 1,000 at 102

At afterhours the gold market ruled very weak at 43. For the end of September sellers were offering on all sides at 42 and even at 41½ without finding over many buyers. The market is beginning to look for a fall in the gold premium when the wool season commences.

The following are the sales at afterhours:—
Gold—
For Aug. 24th 100,000 at 143.80-143-142.80
For Aug. 31st 300,000 at 144-143-142.80
For Sept. 30th 250,000 at 141-142.
Certificates—
300 at 95-96
Cedulas—
For Aug. 24th Serie F 50,000 at 80
Do Serie G 70,000 at 88.

In discounts there was nothing done in gold. Paper easy at 6 and 6½ according to signature.

Mr Edward Murphy applied to the Tribunal de Comercio yesterday for a license as produce broker. With his large connection and many friends, he is sure to do a good business.

To-morrow the La Plata Government will send to the Chambers a message asking authority to issue another million and a half nats in 'Bonos de Edificacion.' This security is said to be drug in the market at a very sharp shave.

The price of "novillos" is stiffening in some quarters. Mr John McDonald of Villanueva paid as high as $500 m/n each this week for animals in prime condition.

The Rentas Office named yesterday the following gentlemen to act as Contribucion Directa juries for the present year.

Circuito 1º—Presidente: Alejandro Leloir. Vocales—Jose Antonio Terry, Juan Agustin Garcia, Juan A. Lacroze y Alfredo Arteaga.
Circuito 2º—Presidente: Domingo Parody. Vocales—Dr. Eduardo Basavilbaso, Márcos Paz, Lucio Reinoso y Pascual Podestá.
Circuito 3º—Presidente: Juan G. Ballesteros.
Vocales—Jose Sonmariva, Juan Iribarne, Luis Mont y Francisco G. Valle.
Circuito 4º—Presidente: Meliton Espinosa. Vocales—Esteban Badaraco, Vicente L. Casares, Juan A Boeri.

Circuits 1 and 2 will begin to sit on Tuesday, at 1 p.m. in the Contribucion and Patente Office, Calle Reconquista 42, circuit 3 at the corner of Salta and Mexico; and 4, at the corner of Piedras and Comercio at 2 p.m. The following are the Sections in each Circuit:—
Circuit 1º, sections 1, 3, 5, 13 and 15.
Circuit 2º, sections 9, 4, 6, 7 and 8.
Circuit 3º, sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 17.
Circuit 4º, sections 14, 16, 18, 19 and 20.
The Juries will sit for 30 working days. The time for paying Contribucion. Tax for city will expire on the 15th October.

This was a poor produce Saturday on 'Change. The rain stopped everything in port and Plaza. The payments were small. Advices from outside report the rain as very heavy. The estancieros say that, if a cold snap does not come after the downpour, the camps will soon recover the effects of the unpropitious winter.

In reference to the price quoted in our last issue for Euculyptus trees (50 cents) we learn that this is a high and fancy figure. The price for a lot sold from a Flores quinta some months ago was 13 paper dollars; but the market has gone to the dogs since then, owing to the Italians finding that the tree makes miserable charcoal. It is so cross-grained that it is impossible to cut it, and it is, in fact, unmanageable in every way. At the quinta of the late Mr. Bagley, near Quilmes, the trees are selling now at ten paper dollars each, and market heavy. The Italians, instead of breaking their axes in trying to cut it, bore a hole in the trunk, fill it with gunpowder, and blast the tree to fragments.

The special Committee named by Government to revise and collect accounts overdue to the Custom House are working away. Up to the 31st ult. they collected 10,500 m/n, and pocked 15 o/o as commission; a very high rate of remuneration apparently.

The "long firm" swindle was much spoken of on 'Change; but it was hard to get particulars, as the police are very reticent. The general opinion is that the affair is much exaggerated; still merchants do not relish so many attempts of this kind made of late in this market.

The late Dr. Newland's fine estancia on the frontier is to be taken over and worked by a private company of his friends. The land is first-class. More joint-stock estancias, large and small, are wanted in the country.

Mr. Daus, the leading Chilian tanner, who is now in this city, has had interviews with several estancieros about the supply of "viscachas" on their camps. It appears that this gentleman has invented a process that makes the skin of these troublesome rodents indistinguishable from kid-skin, and a complete revolution in the glove trade will be the probable result, with a heavy fall in the price of this indispensable article. Mr. Daus intends to establish a tannery here for the exclusive preparation of "viscacha" skins, and estancieros may hope to see their lands delivered from the pest of the camp.

Messr. Hughes & Dunzelmann have sold two leagues of camp in the IInd Section of National land at 5,000 m/n per league.

This was a dull wet Saturday, and although we are all fully aware that the country needs the rain, still the streets and side walks are in such a desperate condition with the works going on, that the rain causes great inconvenience. We never recollect the city in a more pitiable state than now, and a weeks wet weather would stop the business of the whole market.

Early next month the new Bolsa will be opened for business, which will cause a very great change in Calle San Martin. We hear that the Nat. Government intends to buy the old Bolsa for a Contribucion Directa Office.

In La Plata there is a fixed determination to remove the Provincial Bank, Mortgage Bank, Monte Pio, and other Provincial establishments as quickly as possible from Buenos Aires. The Chambers have passed the law, but there is strong opposition here to any such measures.

Dr. Irigoyen will not return as soon from the Interior as was expected; he has left Tucuman for Salta and Jujuy. Political affairs are getting hotter than ever, and the warm reception Dr. Irigoyen has received up the country has caused quite a stir in political circles down here. Time runs on very fast. In another six months the Presidential election will come off, and in another 12 months or so, the new President will be preparing to enter the Government House, Gen. Roca will evidently keep his word and there will be no row; everything will pass off smoothly.

The mails per steamer Rio Negro from Havre arrived to-day, the dates are to 1st inst., but Havre is such a small place that its papers are not over interesting, and captains from Havre rarely think it worth their while to bring the latest London papers, which could be always bought at the kiosks for a few centimes.

The sale of Rambouillet Rams at Messrs A. Bullrich's, from Mr Martinez de Hoz's estancia, was rather in favor of buyers; the rams sold from 2,000 $m/c to 3,000 $m/c, and a few as low as 1,400 $m/c. We believe the rambreeding business at present in the Plate gives very poor results, owing to the very heavy expenses.

Parties are offering in the market now officers' land grants, which can be bought at the rate of 1000 m/n per 1½ league. We hardly think there is much of a bargain in this business as Congress has yet to approve of them, and no one knows where the land will be situated, perhaps at the back of Chubut or perhaps in the Gran Chaco.

When Dr Plaza left for Europe, is was generally believed that the Pellegrini loan was arranged and everything looked sunny. It is not probable therefore that Dr Plaza holds, as is reported, any special mission to succeed Pellegrini. Such certainly were not his views when leaving the mole head.

In another column will be found Mr. Boardman's report on the business of the Central Argentine Land Co. for last year. It will be seen how under good management this company thrives. There is a healthy activity in the sales, leases, &c, and we believe that the business for this year will show even better.

Messrs Wells and Barber, the popular contractors, have won fresh laurels in raising the steamer, Albert, of London, that foundered the other day in the Boca.

A very beautiful site on the Calle Larga and Rodriguez Peña, near the Recoleta, 39 x 46, has been sold at the splendid price of 600 m/n. per vara front. We believe Mr. Stoppani, manager of Italian Bank, is the buyer. It is one of the most fashionable sites in town.

All that has been so current in the market during the last week, concerning Pellegrini resuming the loan business and the Provincial Bank being asked if they needed any further emission, was pure bosh. We give in our leading columns the explanation of this most wondrous comedy of errors.

When curso forsoso was declared it was the general opinion that Cedulas and National lands would suffer a great fall. Such has, however, not proved the case, Cedulas, spite of a new series, are rising, and as for National lands, the transactions which we record daily show, that not only do they maintain their price, but are advancing in value. We gather from this the steady depreciation of the paper money and the permanent decline of the purchasing power of our medium. Let us all look well ahead, since, if some very radical change is not introduced, the market will be worse next year than this, and what you can buy to-day for 10,000 $m/n may cost next year 15,000 m/n. We believe the proper course to adopt would be to burn the paper money every month, as we did years ago. It is not necessary to burn a large amount each month, a certain small fixed sum would answer the purpose, as it would establish a healthy precedent. The heaviest losers in the market so far, are those who hold their capital at interest in the banks and in paper. In Chile, the loss to the hitherto wealthy classes is something dreadful, and gold is over 100 premium. Here we are not so badly off, yet things look very glum, and perhaps the steady purchases of National lands may have something to do with the decline in the value of paper money.

The stupendous revelations of the Nacion this morning in reference to the Pellegrini loan and the Finance Minister's notes to the State Banks about an increased emission of notes, caused nothing short of a convulsion in the market. Amazement, amusement and indignation were all freely expressed at the ring, the key-note of all being that, if such outrageous blundering can go on in the Government House, it is no wonder the country's finances have reached their present state. The most inexplicable part of the affair is that a whole week should have been allowed to pass without any attempt being made to officially set right the blunder about the note to the National Bank. The history of this extraordinary affair is as follows:—This day week President Roca received a cable message from Dr. Pellegrini, asking H.E. what changes were required in the loan contract with the London bankers to make it acceptable to the Government and Congress. This message was received subsequent to another, in which Dr. Pellegrini said he would embark on the 18th. This message was left unanswered; and in the second one he added that, if this message were also left unanswered, he would sail on the 26th. At 6.15 p.m. last Saturday, President Roca, under the impression that Dr. Pellegrini had received new proposals from the bankers, sent a despatch embodying the changes which the Government considered necessary in the contract, adding that, if they were agreed to, Congress would sanction the loan. A clerk was sent to the Havas Agency with the message, but the office was closed, and the porter then took it to the National Telegraph Office and sent it via Valparaiso, Iquique, and Galveston. Nothing more was heard of the matter till Thursday last, when another message was received from Dr. Pellegrini, asking why his last had not been answered; and on its heels came another from the West Coast "Despatch not delivered. Pellegrini unknown". What the stupid clerk had done then came to light. The President at once sent two telegrams, one to Iquique, ordering the previous message to be repeated and delivered at the Argentine Legation in Paris, and the other direct to Dr. Pellegrini, explaining what had occurred. As for the note to the Provincial Bank, it was intended for the National Bank, and a clerk, in copying it and the address wrote the wrong Bank. Mr. Hueyo, President of the Provincial Bank, at once submitted it to the Board. Two days afterwards, Mr. Sastre, President of the National Bank, called on Mr. Hueyo and explained the mistake, asking for the note, but Mr. Hueyo refused to give it up unless it was officially withdrawn by the Finance Department, from which, on Wednesday, Mr Hueyo received a memorandum, asking him to call. He did so at 5 p.m. on Thursday; but Dr. Pacheco, Minister of Finance, was not there, and he only saw the Under-Secretary, Mr. Hansen. It was agreed that the note would be returned, on the Minister asking for it by letter; but up to this morning the Finance Minister had not sent a line to the Provincial Bank. Such is the history of this truly extraordinary affair. The whole market has been kept in a fever for nine days; millions have been staked on the Bolsa; merchants' business and calculations have been upset right and left, and all through the blunders of a porter and a clerk, and the unaccountable delay of the Government in officially rectifying those blunders.

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre we have the following:—
70 waggons arrived with produce.

300 @ of wool
